[No. 5207.]

For the prevention and cure of MILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended

HAN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.
This Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons has been adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Effects of this conclusive nature speak in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proclaimed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the presence of our bilious fevers, will prove infallible preventive; and further, in the earlier stages of those diseases or use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly safe, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the system—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and could be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

inate coughs, asthma, sore throats, cat-arrhs, and approaching consumptions.—

covery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

dicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic out-palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. etc.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants of week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that irritating smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

intermittent fevers.

historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised; Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America,

"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence."
Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.
ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—the general deluge—the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement by English Colonies, till the present time.—
The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.
It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages
each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fine types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786; on reading this Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expounded or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in propo-tion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANFORD SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.
The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U-States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble —but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by publication. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

Section 6. And be it further enacted, That previous to granting a license for opening the theatre or circus, the mayor and president of the common council shall examine the premises, and if in their opinion it is necessary, they shall require the managers to put the same in a situation to enable the audience to retire from the same with safety in case of fire, or any other alarm; and that no license shall be granted until the said requisition of the mayor and president of the common council is complied with.

Section 7. And be it further enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the passing of the same.

Passed in Council 17th April, 1818,
J. G. MOORE, President.
Approved 20th April, 1818,
JACOB HOFFMAN, Mayor.

ALEXANDRIA:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Tuesday, April 21, 1818.

Yesterday congress adjourned for the session. It was a busy day. The bulk of the work done was putting the finish upon a variety of acts which had already been matured in both houses, and waited only the last touch from the hands of the legislature. A bill from the senate to divide the state of Pennsylvania into two judicial districts, was attempted to be got rid of, by a motion for indefinite postponement made by Mr. Hopkinson. This motion, however, was opposed by Mr. Ingham, Mr. Moore, and with much force and eloquence by Mr. Baldwin;—and after a reply from Mr. Hopkinson, was negatived by a decisive majority. A motion was then made by Mr. Forsyth, to amend the bill so as to have the district courts held alternately at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh; but this also failed. Mr. Hopkinson then moved to reduce the salary allowed by the bill for the additional judge from 1600 to 1000 dollars, and was foiled in this effort also by a large majority. The bill was then read a third time and passed.

The bill for increasing the salaries of certain officers of government, was, after an attempt to postpone it indefinitely which was negatived by 56 to 39, passed. Messrs. Harrison and Pitkin, for the representatives, and Messrs. Tait and Macon, for the senate, were the committee appointed to wait on the president and inform him that congress were ready to adjourn; and they returning with a report that the president had no further communication to make to congress, the houses adjourned sine die.

R. T. Thompson and John W. Ashton, were on Monday last elected delegates to the general assembly of Virginia for the county of Fairfax.

From the Augusta Chronicle, April 8. LATEST FROM THE ARMY.

We received intelligence from the army, by last evening's mail, as late as the 24th ult. Jackson, Gaines, and Glascock left Fort Scott on the 11th, in order to meet some provisions that were on the way from New-Orleans, and on the 14th met a supply sufficient, with which they immediately proceeded on to the Mickasuckee Towns; the forces consisting of about 500 regulars, 1000 militia, and several commands of Indians, amounting in the aggregate to about 1800. On the 26th McIntosh's command of 776 Indians left Fort Scott to join Jackson, which it was supposed would be effected on the 28th, previous to the contemplated attack on the Mickasuckees. We may shortly expect to hear of some decisive blow being struck in that quarter.

From the Savannah Republican, April 11. MILITARY MOVEMENT.

Colonel Marshall, commanding the 1st regiment in this city, received orders last evening from the major general of the 1st division, requiring him to hold his regiment in readiness, subjected to march at a moment's warning—each man to be provided with sixty rounds of ball cartridges. The order has been complied with through the colonel.

We understand that a similar order has been made on the whole state—the object of which we are not at this time prepared to say.

Extract of a letter from Amelia Island, dated 4th instant, to a gentleman in this city.

Report from St. Augustine says, that 600 European veterans are expected there to defend the place. [ibid.]

From the Norfolk Herald, April 17.

From our attentive correspondent at Gibraltar we have received the following items of intelligence, under date of February 28th:

The Russian squadron, consisting of five 74's and three 44's, under the command of admiral Moller, in the Dresden, arrived at Cadix on the 21st instant, (February) viz:
El Dresden, 74, capt. Turnepsky
El Norte Adier, 74, — Hamilton
El Neptuno, 74, — Mossat
El Tronchawastil, 74, — Torderem
El Lubeck, 74, — Stepanof
El Mercurio, 44, — Novilskoz
El Patricio, 44, — Tolonbiel
El Asirogle, 44, — Rody
This fleet is said to be the same the English seized at Lisbon in 1811, and gave up afterwards upon the rupture between France and Russia; and it is said that England pays for it out of the 400,000 she is to give Spain for abolishing the slave trade. There were no troops, and transports are ready to take the seamen back by way of the Black Sea.

A gentleman who is here from Cadiz, since the arrival of the Russians, states a fact somewhat flattering to our national character—on their arrival in the bay of Cadiz, the admiral's ship saluted the town, and on the following day (which was Washington's birth day) every ship fired a full round. It was avowed to have been fired in honor of that occasion, and was not answered by the Spaniards.

What special service the Spaniards mean to send this fleet upon, or how they are to fit it out in the beggarly state of their exchequer, time only can determine—nobody here knows.

Our squadron is still aloft—I believe at Syracuse; but commodore Chauncey is looked for every day, on his way home, and it is said the Franklin will accompany him this far.

The writer in another letter observes, The king of Spain has made Cadiz a port of deposit, similar to Marseilles, upon paying, it is said, 2 per cent. I don't know yet when it is going into operation, and am ignorant of several important particulars that are necessary to enable me to lay the subject clearly before you. I have seen that part of the order which proclaims Cadiz to be one of the intended ports, but it is contingent upon a tariff prescribed by a commercial tribunal, which we have not seen.

COMMERCIAL LETTER, From the American consul at St. Pierre, (Mart.) to a gentleman in Charleston, dated March 10.

Since your departure we have continued to receive supplies of lumber of every kind. I need hardly say to you, bring no more here until you hear of a change in the market. Corn continues a glut; rice of course keeps down, and will for some time; flour appears to be on the rise—none has arrived from the United States since you left us, and only two vessels have arrived from France, and they have but little—not worth noticing: a small cargo, within the reach of different purchases, say 4 up to 800 bbls. I believe, might be sold at $15, and will reach $14 per bbl. cash. Should it rise to that, or higher, it is possible the port will continue open. The retailers will raise their prices beyond the proportion of the rise on the cargo prices, and it is the retail price will influence the government to open or shut the port the 23d April. Could you be here previous to that, I have no doubt of your obtaining $14 cash—I don't know another article to recommend sending here. Our governor is at present at Fort Royal, or I would endeavor to know his intentions to close or keep open the port. Report says he has appointed two brokers for the sale of all American cargoes not absolutely consigned; and if the supercargo or captain chooses to sell his cargo himself, he nevertheless must pay a commission to the broker; which broker, I presume, will sell to whom he pleases. If the report is true, it will be making the fortune of two brokers at the expense of the American commerce, for the island will soon lose it, or I mistake.

EARLY NAVIGATORS. Arngrium Jonas tells us, that when Flok, a famous Norwegian navigator, was going to set out from Shetland for Iceland, then called Gardarsholm, he took on board some crows, because the mariner's compass was not then in use. When he thought he had made a considerable part of his way he threw up one of his crows, which, seeing land astern, flew to it; whence Flok, concluding that he was nearer to Shetland (perhaps rather Faroe) than any other land, kept on his course for some time, and then sent out another crow, which seeing no land at all returned to the vessel. At last, having run the greatest part of his way, another crow was sent out by him, which, seeing land ahead, immediately flew to it; and Flok, following his guide, fell in with the east end of the island. Such was the simple mode of steering their course, practised by those bold navigators of the stormy Northern Ocean. The ancient natives of Taprobane (Ceylon) used the same expedient when skimming along the tranquil surface of the Indian Ocean.

From the National Register.

WORTHY OF IMITATION. We have an aversion generally of publishing extracts of letters upon business, when the writer and the receiver are the only persons concerned—the following being spontaneous, and applying so directly to a subject which may tend to benefit others as well as myself, I feel certain I shall be excused for inserting it.

E—n, (Md.) March 8, 1818. Sir—Without referring to the first number of the "National Register," (which I have not immediately by me) it is my impression that it commenced in the early part of March; if so, a year's subscription ought to be advanced—for although "in medio tutissimam esse," may be a good maxim in other respects, I think printers of expensive newspapers ought to be paid in advance, to enable them to "go on their way rejoicing."—I therefore send you enclosed a handsome likeness of a celebrated printer (Doctor Franklin,) which I consider worth $5, and which you may either have exhibited as an ornament for your "Drawing Room," or appropriated to any other laudable purpose that may please your fancy.

From the Boston Dai. Advertiser, Ap. 13. SPAIN.

In the present state of our relations with Spain, our readers will be glad to obtain all the information possible relative to our trade with that country and her colonies, and the consequences which would be likely to result to it from a Spanish war, however remote such an event may be thought. A very sensible pamphlet on this subject has lately been published by a merchant of Philadelphia, which is full of valuable commercial information. The following extract contains his general reasoning on the probable effect of a Spanish war. We shall hereafter give some of the details of facts by which he supports his positions.

"But we will here leave all preliminary matter, and proceed to the discussion of our main object, viz.—The probable effects of a war with Spain on the commerce of the United States. It may be proper to divide this subject into two parts, and to consider it, as well in reference to our being engaged in a war with Spain, having Great Britain as our ally, as to our being engaged in it single handed. For although we may have no substantial reason for supposing that she will offer herself to us in that capacity, yet as her interests are inseparably connected with every view which we can take of the subject, it may not be amiss to consider it in this form also. But we will begin with the most probable of the two cases, viz. that of our being engaged alone.

Possessing as we do on this occasion, the option of peace or war, we should, as a prudent and commercial nation, begin by forming an estimate of the advantages which we now enjoy, and of those which we may reasonably expect from the contemplated war; and according as the balance may appear on either side, we should regulate our measures. This is the course which I mean to pursue in respect to the present and the eventual state of our commerce with Spain and her colonies.

At present we have a free and unrestricted intercourse with all the European ports of Spain; with those of her colonies in Asia; with her rich insular possessions in the West Indies; and, with the exception of the port of Mexico, we may trade freely, if our ingenuity could suggest the means, with nearly all her parts from the province of Yucatan to the river Oronoko; the whole of which, they on the Oronoko and the small island of Margarita excepted, are at this time in possession of the Royalists. To Buenos Ayres, her only remaining port on the eastern, and to the ports of Chili on the western shore of America, the whole of which are in the hands of the Patriots, we have of course free admittance, if we choose to take the hazard of capture by the royal cruisers.

Thus we have before us a general view as it respects locality, of our commerce with Spain and her colonies. Let us now see what will be its situation in the event of a war with her—during which we shall have no intercourse with the ports under her immediate control. We are to count on losing our trade with

All the ports of Spain in Europe, Manila, Porto Rico, The Spanish part of St. Domingo, The Island of Cuba, and The ports on the Main in possession of the royalists.

And we shall continue to enjoy the same sort of communication which we now have with The ports on the Oronoko, Buenos Ayres, Chili, And perhaps some small commerce with the frontiers of Mexico.

What a fearful balance does this state of the account exhibit! But even here we see but a part of our loss; for in reality there will be nothing left to us but a worthless portion of our trade with the colonies of Spain. We may probably flatter ourselves that the united efforts of the patriots and ourselves will soon effect a complete emancipation of Mexico and of all the other colonies. But even then we will find the balance against us, to an extent, of which, from a superficial view, we can form no idea. It is not our business to give here a detailed account of our long-established trade with the ports of Spain in Europe—but we incidentally observe, that it is grounded on the exportation of large quantities of our bulky productions, such as flour, rice, corn, tobacco, fish, salted provisions and lumber, nearly the whole of which are carried in our own vessels; and in return for which we receive such of the productions of Spain as are suited to our consumption. Our commerce with the Islands is of the same nature, as to exports, but vastly more valuable, not only for the quantity and value of the imports which they furnish, but also for the lively intercourse produced by our vicinity, which creates and gratifies numerous wants. The single port of the Havana consumes from 50 to 100,000 barrels of our flour annually. And let it excite the sober reflection of those whose duty it may be to deliberate on the question of war, when they learn that the humble article of molasses imported into the United States from the single Island of Cuba, is of more commercial value, and we may add as a corollary, of more national importance, than all the ordinary articles of trade which could be imported into this country from all the ports and places of Spanish America, situated between and including the ports of Vera Cruz and the Oronoko, and forming, as it respects our trade, the marrow of our possessions on the continent of America. We ask for no effort of faith in favor of a suspension of opinion, until our remarks on the commerce of those countries shall be detailed in our subsequent observations. In the mean time, we shall give some further information respecting the trade of the Island of Cuba. Meagre as our statistical accounts are respecting the actual trade of the Spanish colonies, we have sufficient to shew the value and importance, even to our commerce, of this invaluable possession.

In the year 1817, there were exported from Havana, according to the official returns of the custom-house,

|---|--------------|
| 210,700 boxes of sugar, of about 4 cwt. each, | |
| 50,739 bbls. of molasses, | |
| 3,395 pipes of brandy, | |
| 551,918 lbs. of wax, | |
| 17,335,775 lbs. of coffee. | |
| The port of St. Jago, next in point of wealth and produce to Havana, furnishes large quantities of articles similar to the above, but of which we have no report. Besides these there are other ports of minor importance. But I have ascertained from the best mercantile authority, that the quantity of molasses delivered at the different ports, and sold almost exclusively to our merchants during the last year, was as follows, viz. | |
| Havana | 50,739 bbls. |
| Matanzas | 7,000 |
| Trinidad | 3,000 |
| St. Jago | 5,000 |

45,739 bbls. A hoghead of molasses is worth at this time in Havana $48 on board. The whole quantity therefore purchased for our commerce, during the last year, must have amounted to $1,921,878, and was sufficient to load 228 vessels, of the burden each of 200 hogheads, and navigated by 1800 men. A part of this important article is consumed in the state in which it arrives in the U. States; but by far the greatest part is converted into spirit, and thus becomes a new article of commerce; and is exported in large quantities to the north of Europe, or consumed by ourselves. But, in addition to the molasses, we make large investments in sugar and coffee for our own consumption, and as an article of exportation; and we participate in the direct carriage of both, between Cuba and Europe.

Our commercial connexion with the valuable island of Porto Rico, becomes daily more interesting, from the growing industry of its large population, and the consequent increase of its consumption and exports.—It is to be regretted, that we have no tables of its exports or consumption. Our custom-house entries can furnish very strong evidence of the importance of our trade with this colony.

Such are the objects which we are to surrender, without improving, in the smallest degree, our situation in the patri ports. (To be continued.)

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:
HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMON CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikesland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter. The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

Fan-Sash Making
METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expense in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 45, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:
Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges.
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small saw-worm; the Cucurbitaria or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALARIAL FEVERS is recommended.
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.
